

FALL PROTECTION

Suspension Intolerance Strap | SP-FP-002

Description

The SPROM Suspension Intolerance Strap is specially designed to help relieve the negative effects of suspension trauma for workers using fall arrest systems. Compact and lightweight, it does not interfere with the worker's movement while at work. It is easily attached to the harness using the textile loop and velcro provided, ensuring quick deployment in emergencies.

Key Information

Colors: ● ●

Size : 20 mm

Fabric: High strength polyester webbing, steel scaffold hooks

Key Features

- ▶ Helps relieve suspension trauma effects after fall arrest
- ▶ Double Y shaped lanyard attaches to harness dorsal D ring
- ▶ Steel scaffold hooks for secure connection
- ▶ Compact lightweight design in pouch form
- ▶ Easy deployment with zip open pouch and buckle connection
- ▶ Adjustable textile leg loops for personalized comfort and pressure relief
- ▶ TPU molded casing maintains shape in varied conditions

Applications

The SPROM Suspension Intolerance Strap is designed for fall arrest systems, construction work, utilities and maintenance, telecommunications, and rescue situations, helping to prevent suspension trauma and ensure worker safety after a fall or during prolonged suspension.

